Ensuring the safety of goods imported into the United States is a priority trade issue for U.S. Customs & Border Protection. Please join us for this timely program covering latest developments in product safety, compliance, and enforcement.

Topics include:

- ▶ Current procedures for admissibility, detentions, exclusions and seizures
- ▶ Government-Industry partnerships to expedite the clearance of compliant products
- ▶ CBP and CPSC enforcement strategies and initiatives
- ▶ Best practices for avoiding unnecessary delays in admissibility decisions
- ▶ Current status of CPSC certification and testing requirements
- ▶ Other government agency product safety requirements
- ▶ Legal responsibility and liability for non-compliance

Speakers:

Hank Tapy, Regional Director
U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission

Elva Muneton, Assistant Port Director
U.S. Customs & Border Protection

Dave Shaw, ISET Supervisor
U.S. Customs & Border Protection

Heather Litman, Counsel, GDLSK
