Foreign Trade Association Presents:

Webinar- The USMCA and its Impacts on the Trade Community

Updates and new requirements

DESCRIPTION:

Under the leadership of President Donald J. Trump, the United States has reached an agreement with Mexico and Canada in the renegotiation of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). The stated goal of the new United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA) is a mutually beneficial win for North American businesses. What does the new USMCA mean for you and your business? This 60-minute webinar will cover the dynamics of the agreement, its impact on foreign direct investment and the significant regulatory changes the trade community likely faces, including rules of origin and dispute resolution changes, assuming the agreement is ratified by the U.S. Senate and the legislatures of the other countries. Better start planning now, so your company is ready!
